- F.2.1. A protest Committee will be installed to handle the protest. A decision has to be made before the beginning of the next match of the concerned teams. As soon as the final decision is made Team Managers of the concerned teams will be informed by the Protest Committee.
- F.2.2. The foundation of the decision of the Protest Committee will be the valid IPCH Competition Regulations and IPCH Game Rules.
- F.2.3. Decisions imposed by the Protest Committee are final as far as the duration of the IPCH Competition to which is applied is concerned.
- F.2.4. In case of protest of a match that may influence the next match, the match schedule will continue as planned.
- F.2.5. The credit of the Protest Fee of 100 Euro will only be returned if the protest is approved by the Protest Committee.

F.3. To appeal a protest

- F.3.1. Any player, official or team member has the right of appeal through their IWAS national member organisation to the IWAS Executive Committee.
- F.3.2. The appeal should be made in writing, in English, with the support of the applicant's organisation in membership with IWAS. The appeal shall be directed via the IWAS Secretariat to an Ad Hoc Appeal Committee appointed by the IWAS Executive Committee.

ARTICLE G: PUNISHMENT INFLICTION

G.1. Punishment

G.1.1. On the basis of a report of the referees, coaches and/or captains or by itself, the Jury is allowed to order punishments to a team, to a player, to another team member or to audience.

G.1.2. The Jury can order a team a lost match with the result of 0 – 5 and reduce 2 points, if:

- A team has played with an ineligible player.
- A team was not present on the playing field, ready to play, in time, according the Match Form.

The match is forfeited and a Walk Over (W.O.) is at hand.

- A team has left the playing field during play without the senior referee's permission.
- A player, coach, other team member or own audience causes that a match cannot start or causes a strike of a match.

G.1.3. If a team is ordered a lost match with the result of 0 – 5, as mentioned in article G.1.2., the opposing team shall be considered as having won the match with the result of 5 - 0.

G.1.4. If a player or another team member has received a 'Red Card' during the match, the person concerned shall be disqualified for the further duration of the match and shall be suspended for the first next match. The Jury can extend the punishment (see art. E.2.9. and G.1.1.).

G.1.5. Any registered participant who:

- fails to comply with the rules governing the competition,
- contravenes the spirit of fair play,
- manifestly offends official(s), referee(s) or members of any IWAS/IPCH Committee or the Organising Committee in the course of his/her/their official duties,
- behaves in a manner which discredits the IWAS/IPCH or the Organising Committee,
- shall be penalised by the IPCH Jury in the form of a fine and/or suspension/disqualification, determined by the IPCH Jury.
